Special Event: Saturday, October 7, 2017: Triangle Squares Party. Sew Days in Picture Butte, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 25 & 26 from 10-4. Cost: $10 for 1 day, $15 for 2. Kaye Borthwick and Val Beasley have organized a two day sew day to take place at Prairie Tractor Pioneer Village in Picture Butte again this year. They also showed a quilt they made and donated to the Tractor Club on behalf of the Lethbridge Centennial Quilters Guild to be used as a raffle prize at their December meeting. Please bring all sewing machine attachments including extension cords as well as your quilting projects. Because this is a working museum, please do not bring a design wall to hang up as there is no space to accommodate it. The Ice Cream Shoppe next door will be open and they will take orders for hotdogs, potato chips, pop and of course, ice cream which you can purchase. We are also close enough to town if you want to get a sandwich, etc.

Now for the grand reveal of the projects worked on these past few months, the ladies who have participated in the Keylime Mystery Quilt, Pineapple Quilt, and Snails Trails shared their projects, some very lovely work I must say. A draw was made from each of the three categories for a gift certificate and wouldn't you know it, Donna Kendall won all three! Congratulations to all the ladies who participated!

The prizes this month were purchased from Lethbridge Sewing Centre, and the winners are:

Door Prize (Free Ticket): 1.5 m of batik Mary Cohen

Treasured Stash of Fat Quarters, Summer Fun Lori Hand

Loonie Draws:

1.5 m of batik Lynn Perron

1.5 m of batik Evelyn Dick

1.5 m of batik Hazel Clewes

Winners of Bags that were donated:

Barb Adams, Michelle Demers and Judy Barnett

A presentation was made to Donna Kendall who was the winner of the Creative Challenge.

Judy made a draw from the membership for a gift basket donated to our Guild from one of our longtime Quilt Show Vendors, Veronica from Kindersley, Sask. Veronica could not be at our quilt show this year as she had been diagnosed with cancer. The Quilt Show sent her a gift of a quilt and to show her appreciation, she made up a gift basket to be given to one of our guild members. The winner of the basket was Sharon Anholt, congratulations, Sharon.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 with Judy wishing everyone a wonderful summer. See you all in the fall.

The September meeting date will be sent out later in the summer.
